CURFEW

Curfew ordinances are enforced throughout the Quad Cities.

In Illinois, persons under 17 years of age must be off the streets by 11:00pm Sunday-Thursday and by midnight Friday-Saturday unless accompanied by a parent.

In Iowa, persons under 18 years of age must be off the streets by 11:00 p.m. Sunday-Thursday and by midnight Friday-Saturday.

In most cases there is leeway~ if a person can prove they are on a direct route home after a late movie, for example, they may not get in trouble. (Quad City Times; Sept. 16, 1994)

STUFF TO DO- OUTSIDE

The Mississippi River

Bike or walk along a portion of the 62.5 mile “Great River Trail”, passing between the TaxSlayer® Center and the rivershore. Download maps for urban trails and off-road cycling. Elizabeth Dimer, Senior Event Coordinator, can assist regarding bicycle rental.

The Channel Cat, water taxi operates from Memorial Day to Labor Day, docking just outside the TaxSlayer® Center by TGI Fridays. It takes about an hour to complete the circuit, with stops in both Illinois and Iowa. Sylvan Island Park is about 5- 7 minutes walk to the west on the Great River Trail. This long-abandoned industrial area, now urban wilderness, is within the river’s secondary channel. Wildlife, fishing, biking, hiking, and kids launching into the river from rope swings are common sights here.
